

FPH Trainer Award

Purpose

This award recognises the vital contributions made by Educational Supervisors who can demonstrate educational impact and exceptional commitment and/or innovation to the specialty in their remit as a trainer (Educational/Academic supervisor) not just to individual registrar who need extra support but to the wider community.

Funding

This award will be funded by the FPH Trainer Award Fund and managed by the Education Team.

Criteria

To be eligible for the award nominees must meet the FPH requirements to undertake their role. Only Educational and Academic Supervisors can be nominated for this award.

Nominations must be received by the published closing date and must include a support statement approximately 300-500 words clearly outlining why the nominated supervisor should be considered for this prize. Statements should draw links to relevant contributions (published or unpublished) to support the nomination.

Adjudication

The winner of the FPH Trainer Award will be chosen from the nominations by:

- Academic Registrar
- Assistant Academic Registrar
- Vice Chair of the Specialty Registrars Committee

Prize

The prize will be awarded annually and winners will receive an FPH certificate and a book token. There will be no more than two winners each year.

Frequency of award

The award is given annually, funds permitting.

Closing date for nominations

1st February.

Nomination

All nominations must be submitted on the attached nomination form and sent to educ@fph.org.uk.
Nominations can be made by:

FACULTY OF PUBLIC HEALTH

- Specialty Registrars enrolled with FPH
- FPH Members in Good Standing

Presentation

The prize will be presented at the FPH Annual Awards Ceremony.

For further information please contact Education Team by email at educ@fph.org.uk or by telephone on 020 3696 1451.

