

2nd Annual Health and Inequalities Conference

ECONOMIC, ENVIRONMENTAL AND HEALTH INEQUALITIES IN A TIME OF AUSTERITY

26th June 2019 STAFFORDSHIRE UNIVERSITY, Ashley Building, Leek Road, Stoke-on-Trent, ST4 2DF

DRAFT PROGRAMME

09.15-09.30 Welcome and Introduction: Prof Chris Gidlow and Prof Martin Jones, Staffordshire University

09.30-10.00 Keynote: Health Inequalities and the Welfare State - What should public health teams do? Prof Mark Gamsu, Leeds Beckett University

10.00-10.30 Secure, healthy, inclusive and green –four dividends of a healthier future Prof John Middleton, Faculty of Public Health

10.30-10.50 Coffee break

10.50-12:30 Workshops:

Theme 1: LIVING INEQUALITIES

- Deprivation and the obesogenic environment, Prof Patrick Saunders
- Environmental inequalities, Prof Jon Fairburn, Staffordshire University
- Designing out Homelessness, Jean Templeton, St Basils
- Burden of disease amongst the homeless in West Midlands, Dr Vibhu Paudyal, University of Birmingham and Karen Saunders, Public Health England

Theme 2: MOVING INEQUALITIES

- County lines, Robin Brierley, West Midlands Anti-Slavery Network
- Asylum Seekers: Using Home Office funding for CAMHS service, Natalie Wright Coventry
- Moving from homelessness to temporary accommodation and beyond. What the data tell us, Sukdeep Dhadha
- Frequent mental health related A&E attendances: lethal inequalities, Shammas Rahim, Birmingham and Solihull Mental Health NHS Foundation Trust

Theme 3: ECONOMIC INEQUALITIES

- Loan Sharking, Nadeem Mohammed Illegal Money Lending Team
- Payday Denied: Exploring the lived experience of declined payday

- loan applicants, Dr Lindsey Appleyard University of Coventry
- PIP and the bedroom tax Dr Richard Machin Nottingham Trent University
 - 'A multi-agency approach to help people take control of their finances, Alan Turley North Staffordshire Financial Inclusion Group

12.30-13.15 Lunch

FPH Public Health Photographs exhibition

Stalls:

- Welsh House Farm Big Local Public Health Project - Using local data to tackle inequalities
- Public Health England local data
- West Midlands NIHR Clinical Research Network (Public Health)
- North Staffs Financial Inclusion Group

13.15-13.45 Green space and health inequalities, Prof Chris Gidlow, CHAD, Staffordshire University

13.45-14.15 Health inequalities: the reality Jacquie Ashdown, Assistant Director of Wellbeing (Director of Public Health), Stoke-on-Trent City Council

14.15-14.25 Coffee on the go (move to repeat workshops)

14.25-16.05 REPEAT WORKSHOPS

16.10-16.20 Closing Remarks (John Middleton, Chris Gidlow)

16.20 Close